THIS MONTH'S COVER

Be sure to join our Camp Zama community and off-post neighbors for a day of good fun, fine food and friendship at our annual Cherry Blossom Festival from 10:30 am - 6:30 pm on Saturday, 7 April. This year, we will have more entertainment than ever, including an Armed Forces Entertainment American rock band, an American Dixieland band, a hula show and Hawaiian music, a Japanese girl's marching band, an all-day Coca Cola stage and entertainment, a bilateral baseball game and foreign street performers. Also, there will be a variety of great foods and sponsors booths. Our special guest will be the staff of Armed Forces Radio Eagle 810 broadcasting live from the festival site. Hopefully, the weather will be perfect and there will be cherry blossoms gently falling from the many cherry trees for a picture perfect event. Be sure to bring your camera and plan to spend the day. See the center fold for the schedule of events.
